Qualification Overview

This qualification reflects the role of individuals employed as beauticians to provide a range of beauty services including nail, waxing, lash and brow, and basic make-up services.

These individuals possess a range of well-developed technical and customer service skills where discretion and judgement is required and are responsible for their own outputs. This includes client consultation on beauty products and services. Work is typically conducted in beauty, waxing, brow and nail salons.

Likely functions in the beauty industry for those who achieve this qualification may include employment as a make-up artist, working as part of a salon team or independently as a freelance session stylist. You will be able to utilise your talents at events such as weddings, formals, photoshoots and makeup counter demonstrations, leading to jobs in the beauty, fashion, media and entertainment fields.
